

CASTELLE | Pride Family Brands

Freshen up your outdoor living space with some of the newest looks from the Casual Furniture Market: transitional styles, deep seating, expanded fire features, X-base tables, mixed media and more

1

Curves and deep seating distinguish the conversation-friendly English Garden Collection in handpainted woven aluminum and fine cast button detailing from Pride Family Brands. Three-cushion sofas, $5,523 each; two-cushion sofas, $3,940 each; 24-inch round side table, $934; 50-inch round Castelle Fire Pit/Coffee Table, $4,004. PRIDEFAMILYBRANDS.COM

2

This square 54-inch dining table combines a natural teak base with a powder-coated aluminum top in a zinc finish. Part of a new outdoor line designer Bunny Williams created for Century Furniture. $4,350. CENTURYFURNITURE.COM

3

Gloster's award-winning Bella line features sleek powder-coated aluminum frames combined with gently formed and laminated teak slats for a design that is as elegant as it is comfortable. Armchair, $4,940; bench, $7,100; coffee table, $2,470. GLOSTER.COM

4

The timeless Southampton sofa—from the Richard Frinier Collection for Brown Jordan—interweaves past and present, taking cues from traditional cottage furniture and the relaxed elegance of today's modern lifestyles. Hand-woven of weather-resistant Resinweave. Available in sage, sienna (a neutral brown) and muted gray/green (shown). $3,835. BROWNJORDAN.COM

5

Lloyd Flanders Antiqued Teak Table with X-base is produced from timber obtained solely through FSN sources, primarily in Central and South America. A special finish gives it the appearance of aged or reclaimed teak. Paired with vinyl woven chairs in "Smoke," from the company's accessory line. Table, $2,581.00; chairs, $594.00 each. LLOYDFLANDERS.COM