

HFN

April 2020

WHAT'S NEXT?

TO CONDUCTING BUSINESS
PREDICTABLE TIMES

AT'S NEW THIS SPRING

Although High Point Market, originally scheduled to take place April 25-29, has been postponed, HFN is offering a glimpse of new spring lineups across multiple product categories for retailers to keep in mind for better times ahead. — Allison Zisko

1 The Madison Collection from DownTown Company features solid 400 thread-count duvet sets that are 100 percent long staple cotton with matching shams. Madison sheets features triple row embroidery in either taupe or gray.

2 Aviva Stanoff's Moonrise pillows, part of its Gravity collection, are handpainted in the company's California design studio.

3 Painterly velvet reverses to Duchess satin in Ann Gish's newest bedding.

4 Classic Home's Villa pillow collection includes a range of styles and constructions.

5 The Shayla Copas Collection for Chelsea House includes durable home accent trays available in multiple colors that coordinate with additional items in the collection.

