High Point preview

MOTTAHEDH

First developed in collaboration with the United States State Department for use in the White House and Embassies globally, the patriotic votive by Mottahedeh is made from high-fired porcelain with 22k gold star finish. The scene was crafted in Europe and is a wonderful combination of amber music and jasmine.

TREASURE GARDEN

The pretty and whimsical 10-foot lotus patio umbrella by Treasure Garden is quite unusual in that when it is closed it retracts upward like a lotus flower. When opened the canopy design shows an eye-catching design with lots of detail. The exclusive and stylized umbrella is one of many choices from the company's wide range of items for outdoor living.

HANCOCK & MOORE

The contemporary Zane chair by Hancock & Moore packs a colorful punch with its dusty orange leather upholstery that contrasts nicely against the sleek exposed dark wood frame. Shown here with a dark background with complementary blue accents, the chair makes a dramatic statement. T.001.600.490.5500
